NASH APPOINTED CHAIR OF PLANS, ZONING

Kansas City, Mo--As the new city council begins to shape an agenda for the next four years, all eye's are on City Councilman Troy Nash, 3rd District-at-Large. Councilman Nash, first elected in 1999, served four years as Vice Chair of the Planning, Zoning, and Economic Development Committee. As he enters his second term, he was appointed by Mayor Kay Barnes as Chair of the Planning, Zoning and Economic Development Committee, Vice-Chair of the Budget and Audit Committee, and Committee Member on the Neighborhood Development and Housing Committee.

"I appreciate the Mayor giving me this opportunity to serve the Citizens of Kansas City in a larger leadership role. As we move forward on development priorities in the City, including downtown development, I have a responsibility to ensure that the 3rd District's needs are met at the same time," said Nash.
